

Employee Well-Being & Vitality

At Genmab, one of our greatest strengths is our people. We strive to create an atmosphere that fosters individual empowerment and continuous development by providing an environment that allows employees to achieve their maximum potential and transform their skills and productivity into real value for patients.

We have diversity, experience, new thinking and creativity. We have high expectations of ourselves and a strong commitment to make a difference. Our culture is rooted in our four core values.

Our goal is to not only make Genmab a successful company, but also one of the best places to work in the world. We are committed and we invest in our employees' overall well-being. We focus on employee development, diversity, equity and inclusion, health and safety, and employee engagement to continue to attract and retain the best and most talented people.
